

Tim Talk
December 09

Greetings, for the last time in 2009! As I write this letter, my family and I are gearing up for a week off—no school, no work, and no chores! Before I go, I just want to remind everyone of some very special Gatherings we have planned to finish this year strong, and begin the New Year on the same page and in the same Spirit. Please plan on attending the Gatherings you are able to be at:

12/2, 12/9, 12/16 – Worship Gatherings from 6:30-8:00 pm in the Family Room. These Wednesday nights are set up to seek the LORD's specific will in regards to our Sunday morning Gatherings. If you want to be part of us really getting after what God is wanting us to get after, please come and pray, worship, and brainstorm with us. There are gatherings on campus for all ages, so bring the whole family!

12/5 – Men's Breakfast from 8-10 am in the Family Room. Men, join us as we continue to form the core of our ministry to men for generations to come. We'd love to have young men join us as well. A delicious home-cooked breakfast will be provided by our own Women of Destiny's Servant's Heart team. Thank you ladies!

12/19 – Hope in the Park from 10am-1pm for the last time this year. We will be handing out gifts to the kids who live in the neighborhood surrounding Southside Park.

12/20 – The Nativity Story at both Gatherings. Our kids will be reading and re-enacting the precious story of Christ's birth. Your family won't want to miss this!

12/30 – Family Worship Night from 6:30-8:00pm in the Family Room. We will provide nursery care for kids Kindergarten and younger. For the rest of us, we will gather for one last time in 2009 and worship and pray with thankful hearts for all of God's goodness and grace over our lives.

Enjoy the holiday season with friends and family, and enjoy all the rich food...because we start the 21-day congregational fast on January 3rd. I will be teaching on fasting and the purpose and specifics of our fast on 11/29 and 12/6. I can sense the excitement already! ☺

Abundant blessings to all,
